National Drug Enforcement Policy Board

Attorney General, Chairman

15 April 1987

The President
The White House
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear Mr. President:

The global problems of drug trafficking and abuse pose significant threats to our Nation's health, welfare, and national security. In response to these threats, this Administration has expanded drug enforcement programs, developed initiatives to reduce the demand for illicit drugs, and created the National Drug Policy Board to oversee all Federal drug control efforts.

National Security Decision Directive 221, Narcotics and National Security, discusses the status of the drug problem and calls for nine specific actions to further enhance our Federal drug control efforts. Federal drug enforcement agencies have responded to the NSDD in a variety of ways. The enclosed report describes actions planned and progress achieved by the departments and agencies in implementing National Security Decision Directive 221.

The National Drug Policy Board will continue to monitor the implementation of this important initiative.

Sincerely,

EDWIN MEESE III
Chairman
